BSTTW'S BACKGROUND

In May 1998 Michael Appleman became a burn survivor. Then in February 2000, while still going through rehabilitation, Michael decided to offer the support and education needed to help other burn survivors and their families.

In August 2001, BSTTW was incorporated and in October 2001 BSTTW became a 501 (c)(3) Non Profit Organization.

SERVICES OFFERED

BSTTW offers weekly chats for burn survivors, family members, friends, and the public around the world. We also have the BSTTW Community News. BSTTW offers burn survivor stories and educational articles on scar management, medical techniques, types of burns and more. The BSTTW Support Team is available 24 hours a day for Internet Support Chats, telephone calls and face-to-face support.

Public Awareness

BSTTW educates the public with articles on the internet and takes part in discussions in many communities. We find that working hand in hand with the local fire departments increases our fire safety education.

VOLUNTEER WORK

BSTTW is always looking for individuals interested in volunteering their time and talents. If you would like to become a BSTTW Support Respective, take part in our weekly chats and contact BSTTW by email or telephone. Your support will be helping to rebuild lives and your community.

Burn Survivor Stories

Many burn survivors feel that writing a story about their life helps themselves and others. We have many stories from teenage and adult burn survivors. They motivate others not to give up.

Who Can JOIN BSTTW?

Anyone can join BSTTW. We are open to the public. Burn survivors and family members in financial need can waive the membership fee. You do not have to be a burn survivor or family member to join BSTTW.
