BSTTW's BACKGROUND

In May 1998 Michael Appleman became a burn survivor. Then in February 2000, while still going through rehabilitation, Michael decided to begin the support and education that could help other burn survivors and their families.

In August 2001, BSTTW was Incorporated and in October 2001 we became a 501 (c)(3) Non Profit Organization.

SERVICES OFFERED

BSTTW has weekly chats for burn survivors, family members, friends, and the public around the world. We also have a BSTTW and Teen Newsletter. BSTTW has stories and educational articles on scar management, medical techniques, types of burns and more. Our Support Team is available 24 hours a day for Internet Support Chats, telephone calls and face-to-face support meetings

Public Awareness

BSTTW helps educate the public with articles on the Internet and discussions with the public and children in many communities. We find that working hand in hand with the local fire departments increases our fire safety education.

VOLUNTEER WORK

BSTTW is always looking for individuals interested in volunteering their time. If you are willing to become a friend and support person for a burn survivor then join BSTTW, take part in our weekly chats and contact us by email or telephone. You will be helping to rebuild so many lives and also your community.

Burn Survivor Stories

Many burn survivors feel that writing a story about their life helps themselves and others. We have many stories from Teenage and adult burn survivors. They motivate others not to give up.

Anyone can join BSTTW. We are open to the public. Burn survivors and family members in financial need can waive the membership fee. You do not have to be a burn survivor or family member to join us.
